Radio Workshop Furthers WNTC Dramatic Shows

The Radio Workshop, a new organization composed of members of the Blackfriars and Dramatechters, has been established for the purpose of broadcasting dramatic presentations over campus station WNTC. At the second meeting, October 25, these officers were elected: Hank Cardinelli, chairman; Diane Taylor, secretary; Frank Curtin, sound effects; Ed Marx, control operator and Mr. Hafer of the Science Department, advisor.

Besides comedy and mystery skits, tentative plans include educational skits, adaptations of stage shows and original scripts. The first show, "Clarence," written by Hank Cardinelli, Frank Curtin and Larry Greer of CCT, will be presented early in November.

Special WNTC Features

For the week of November 15, WNTC will present a special program for its listening audience. On Tuesday night, November 16, the Polygon Club will be on the air from 9:00 to 9:30. They will present an interesting discussion on "World Government," with Ronald Turetsky, Bob Moore, Bill Kantrowitz, and John Peterson participating.

Semi-classical music will be played on the "Artists' Review" show on Wednesday night from 9:00 to 9:30. The selections that will be played are on the list of semi-classical numbers that are required listening for PSTC students.

On Friday night, the regularly presented "Concert Hall" program will also consist of selections as chosen from the required list at PSTC.
